

The corporate objective of Cubic FM Ltd is to achieve long – term profitability by carrying out:

- Fire Stopping
- Fire Door Installation, remediation & surveys

Cubic FM Ltd has established a Quality Management System (QMS) in accordance with the requirements of ISO 9001. We are committed to satisfying applicable requirements and continual improvements of the QMS. The QMS provides a robust framework for measuring and improving performance. We are committed to meeting and exceeding client's expectations, providing a quality service ensuring conformance to specified requirements and executing projects within agreed timescales and agreed budgets.

As part of our Quality Management System, we are committed to:

- Providing adequate resources to maintain and develop our Quality Management System
- Ensuring all staff are competent of the basis of appropriate training, educations, skills and experience and we will provide QMS induction as part of the company induction process
- Collating regular feedback and regular monitoring of performance
- Ensuring our subcontractor selection process is robust and monitoring their performance against set criteria

The Quality Policy is implemented throughout the company in line with Quality Management System and is mandatory on all contracts with the full support of the Top Management.

This policy will be communicated to all employees and persons under the control of the company. It will be available to interested parties upon request.